

05/02/2021

[National] Administrative Provisions on the Information Services Provided through Official Accounts of Internet Users (released on Jan 22, 2021 and becomes effective on Feb 22, 2021)

On It is clear that the public account information service platform should fulfill the main responsibility of information content and public account management, and newly added the main responsibility of the platform such as data protection, personal information protection, intellectual property protection and credit evaluation etc. in accordance with laws and regulations of the Cyber Security Law of the People's Republic of China, the Regulations on Ecological Governance of Network Information Content and other relevant laws and regulations of the state.

[National] Several Provisions on Providing Online Case Filing Services for Cross-border Litigants (released on Jan 25, 2021 and becomes effective on Feb 22, 2021)

It defines the content of cross-border litigation services, service objects, service carriers, cross-border party authentication, entrustment video witness, online filing process, etc., aimed at providing cross-border litigation parties with online filing guidelines, inquiries, proxy video witness, first instance civil and commercial case filing services. Cross-border litigations, such as foreigners, residents of Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, Chinese mainland citizens who frequently restrot abroad or in Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, and enterprises and organizations registered abroad or in Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, may, through the China Mobile Micro-Court WeChat mini-program or computer client for the real-name registration and completion of authentication, then carry out litigation-related matters such as filing a case.